FORT FAIRFIELD
- A PASSION FOR COMMUNITY -

Fort Fairfield is a safe and serene border community located in Central Aroostook County with close proximity to all of the amenities found in larger cities. A place where neighbors reach out to neighbors, Fort Fairfield attracts growing families and senior citizens alike. The people of the town value family heritage, support educational and recreational opportunities and enjoy the unique cultural experience of Canada as their neighbor.

Festival— Fort Fairfield is the home of the annual Maine Potato Blossom Festival, Which is held mid-July when the potato plants are in full blossom. Since its inception in 1937, the festival has been a celebration of a rich heritage and the tradition of the potato industry with a focus on the importance of the farm family. The festival is considered to be a homecoming to those who have relocated but still consider Fort Fairfield their home. The Maine Potato Blossom Festival is a true family event with a week of fun-filled activities, for people of all ages. For the latest information on the Festival visit PotatoBlossom.org

International—Fort Fairfield share its eastern boundary with the Canadian province of New Brunswick. Its business district is located less than two miles from the Canadian border. Over 300,000 vehicles pass the US Customs/Immigration office, one of the busiest 24-hour inspection services on the Maine/Canadian border.
