III. Public Comment Period

Mr. Dan Conklin – resident of Fort Fairfield addressed Council regarding a possible “backyard chicken ordinance.” Mr. Conklin previously lived out on the Morse Road where he had 5 chickens that were considered pets by his children. When Mr. Conklin moved into town at Blue Bell Court he brought the chickens with him. Mr. Conklin stated that November to July they were there with no complaints and last month he was asked to remove them. Mr. Conklin said that the reason he was told to remove them was due to the Town’s Zoning restrictions; agricultural and residential zoning restrictions.

Mr. Conklin stated he spoke to an attorney regarding the restrictions. The attorney asked Mr. Conklin is he was selling the eggs, chickens or any of the bi-products of the chickens. Mr. Conklin responded “No.” Mr. Conklin referenced page 78 of the Zoning Ordinance and read it to the Council. Mr. Conklin commented “If I cannot have my children’s pets that are these five hens inside the residential area, that also means that you cannot have your garden in your backyards because under this, fruits and vegetables would be banned just as much as the chicken. The chickens are kept as pets with names, kept inside a coop and his immediate neighbors have had no problems with the chickens being there.

Mr. Babin asked if Mr. Conklin wished to place this topic on a future Town Council agenda, to please contact the Town Manager, Ms. Powers.

Mr. Conklin stated that he is going to bring the chickens back to his yard tonight and go from there in the future.

Special recognition:

Ms. Powers: “Neither Cheryl nor Keith are aware of the real reason they have been asked to be here tonight so I will begin with the why; The Honorary Lifetime Citizens Award is a proclamation given to an individual(s) who have established outstanding service through a lifetime of consistent contributions to the community of Fort Fairfield. Honorary Lifetime Citizenship is a status bestowed by our community to an individual(s) whom it considers to be especially admirable or otherwise worthy of the distinction.”

“Recognized for providing a significant period of years of continuous and extraordinary service to the community of Fort Fairfield, both Cheryl and her husband Keith grew up in Fort Fairfield, Maine. Went to school here, graduated, married and raised their family here. Cheryl has had a business here; Cherie’s Floral Shop and was a former Director of our Chamber of Commerce. Keith worked for Loomis Bell on his farm for several years. She and Keith have worked on several Maine Potato Blossom Festivals, Cheryl as Parade Director and Keith as her ever present guide and second hand, both are still active members of the Antique Tractor Club.”

Recommendation: That the Town Council vote to approve the proclamation of Honorary Lifetime Citizens Award to Cheryl and Keith Boulier.

Mr. Butler made a motion to approve the proclamation of Honorary Lifetime Citizens Award to Cheryl and Keith Boulier.
